Cured of Drinking.

"A young friend of mine was cured of an insatiable thirst for liquor, that had so prostrated his system that he was unable to do any business. He was entirely cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all that burning thirst; took away the appetite for liquor; made his nerves steady, and he has remained a sober and steady man for more than two years, and has no desire to return to his cups, and I know of a number of others that have been cured of drinking by it."—From a leading R. R. Official, Chicago, Ills.

Case of Yellow Fever Near McMinn's.

There is no doubt about there being a case of yellow fever at the home of Mr. Gid. Luttrell, just across the river from and in sight of McMinn's Station, in this county, about ten miles from the city, in the person of Mr. Fred Mortl, a Memphian. The facts in the case are about this: Mr. Mortl is a live and enterprising retail grocery merchant in Memphis, and has a family consisting of a wife and one child. His wife is very low with consumption, and, before the breaking out of the fever, he sent them, together with a little sister of his wife's up to board with Mr. Luttrell during the summer. He remained in Memphis at his business and would not have come yet, but was summoned on account of the very low and falling condition of his wife. He left Memphis about the 1st inst., and went directly to Mr. Luttrell's, and last Friday, after the expiration of the allotted time, he was taken sick. Of course, it would naturally be inferred by every one that it was yellow fever. Dr. R. Sneed, of Strawberry Plains, was summoned to wait on him. Sunday Dr. A. B. Tadlock, President of the city Board of Health, was sent for, and, after a consultation between the two, it was pronounced a genuine case of yellow fever. When Dr. Tadlock left Sunday evening the patient was at a very low stage. Dr. Sneed continued to render medical assistance, however, and at last reports, yesterday evening, Mr. Mortl was getting along very well, with hopes of recovery.

All the necessary precautionary measures were taken about the premises. Mr. Luttrell's and the sick man's families remain at home and no one goes near. Many wild rumors have been circulated, but as a general thing it does not create much excitement in the neighborhood. There need be very little fears of any outbreak or spread, for there is no one else about who has been in Memphis since the beginning of the fever.

From Strawberry Plains.

STRAWBERRY PLAINS, Aug. 19, 1879.

Mr. Editor: Yesterday evening, while the eastern bound mixed train was passing through Flat Creek bridge, Mr. W. B. Campbell, Express Messenger, unfortunately put his head out of the car door, and before he could take it back he was knocked senseless to the floor. He received a long gash on the left side of the head. No physician being near when they arrived here, he was taken to Mossy Creek and left at the Yoe House.

Mr. Fred Mortl, who is down with yellow fever at Gid. Luttrell's, seven miles west of here. He is some better to-day, and Dr. Sneed, who is waiting on him, thinks he will recover. There is no other yellow fever cases in the family.

Maryville Items.

MARYVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 18, 1879. Mrs. Editor: Last Saturday Rev. Mr. Mountcastle's horse became stubborn, near H. O. Wilson's blacksmith shop, began backing, and finally capsized the buggy in which he was hitched in a hole left in the street by the Roane Iron Company in moving the scales purchased by them. Mrs. Mountcastle's mother was in the buggy and was thrown under it. She was bruised, somewhat, shocked and alarmed considerably. It was a very narrow escape.

The incorporators of Magnolia Cemetery held their first meeting, receiving their charter, last Saturday, and organized by electing E. A. Ramsey President, and Will A. McPeck Secretary and Treasurer. Twelve acres of land have already been purchased and paid for with funds raised by the ladies of the town. So the capital stock is now fixed at $500, and shares at $5.00. The Secretary and Treasurer was instructed to open books and receive subscriptions. The condemnation of Gov. Marks and his cowardly legislature of little souls seems to be on the increase. We know of no Democrat, even, that has a soft word for them. Many of our citizens are anxious to make an issue in the next gubernatorial election between Honesty and Dishonesty. Let it be so—that would be one of the noblest fights Tennesseeans who long honor and their State could be engaged in. Let thieves, robbers and repudiators go hand in hand to the penitentiary, where they belong. The spirit that would lead Tennessee to repudiate is the same that strips the heartroot, and the man who favors repudiation would send the chicken thief to prison.

The commissioners for building our court-house held a session last Saturday and let out the job. David Jones, of our place, gets the brick work at $65.00, and Messrs. Mount and Hooper the carpenter work at $550.00, making altogether the sum of $1,140.00. The commissioners say the whole expense, including the lot, will be about $12,000 in round numbers. It will be an elegant building, supplied with fire-proof vaults and covered with slate.

We had the pleasure of a visit from Col. Xenophon Wheeler, U. S. District Attorney at Nashville. He appears to be for the government in the trial before the commissioner against Ezekiel Birchfield, charged with being on a squad of revenue officers last September.

Was noted G. W. Brooks, of Loudon county, here last week. He has been totally blind over a year, and some months since placed himself under the treatment of Dr. F. J. Arbeeley, at this place, and he is now able to read some; while his eyes are still improving. It is one of the most wonderful cures we have known. W.

C. S. R. R. Bridges.

In conversation with Mr. Gates yesterday we learned some facts in regard to the wooden bridges of the C. S. R. R. Mr. Gates is of Knoxville and is a very extensive bridge builder. He built the county bridge of Knox county, a structure which cost $145,000. He has the contract for building all the wooden bridges on this road, of which there will be twelve between this point and New River, Ky. All will be built of the best select pine, and when completed will be subject to the strictest inspection. The frames are being constructed near Childs & Co.'s planing mill, in this city, and are from there transported for erection. All the lumber is received from Gadsden. The cast iron is furnished by D. Giles & Co., and is of a very superior quality. A large quantity will be used.

Mr. Gates is now engaged in raising bridges at Soddy and Pecos, and in about two weeks will be prepared to raise two more. The entire number will be completed by the middle of October.

There are about twenty-five men employed in building and raising, and several hundred thousand feet of lumber will be used. Thus far no accident has occurred. The largest wooden bridge on the line is at Crooked Ford; it will consist of three spans, each 116 feet in length. All the bridges will be of different pattern, no two alike. About two-thirds of the number will be erected in Tennessee.—Chattanooga Times.

An Income Without Care.

By the combination method of operating in stocks a handsome income can be secured without care. Capital in any amount, from $10 to $50,000, may be used with equal proportionate success. By this system Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, New York, pool the orders of thousands of customers of various sums, into one vast amount and co-operate them under the most skillful management, dividing profits monthly. Each shareholder thus obtains all the advantages of the largest capital and experienced skill, and the percentage profits is very great; $20 will pay $100 in thirty days; $250 will pay $1,250, or 75 per cent. on the stock, and so on, as the market varies. A prominent publisher of the Rock Island and Daily Argus made $104.15 in an investment of $20.00, in October. Hundreds of others are doing even better. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular has "two unerring rules for success in stock operations" and full information so that any one can do in stocks. All kinds of bonds and stocks wanted. New Government bonds supplied. Deposits received. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York City.

Died.

At Ellijoy, Bount county, on Monday morning, August 14th, 1879, Mrs. Elizabeth McGill, aged 46 years and six months. Mrs. McGill was the oldest daughter of Shadrach and Martha Boling. She was born January 30th, 1833. In November 1851 she was married to Pleasant W. Rogers, with whom she continued to reside until the 12th day of September, 1862, when the Rebels took Mr. Rogers, together with Nelson E. Rogers, his cousin, and held them as prisoners of war. Nelson returned home in September, 1863, but P. W. died in prison. The deceased was afterwards married to her present husband, John McGill, who was a consistent member of the Baptist Church at Ellijoy, and leaves many friends to mourn her departure.

On the 13th day of August, 1879, in the 10th civil district of Sevier county, Mrs. Matilda Hale, consort of Joel Hale, aged 40 years. She leaves a large family of children. She was buried at Ellijoy, August 14th. She was a member of the Baptist Church.

From Yesterday's Second Edition.

Funeral of Horace Hickox at Athens. The funeral of the late J. H. Hickox, whose death has been noted by us, occurred from the residence of his uncle, Mr. L. Phillips, Esq., at Athens, Sunday morning.

He was buried with Masonic ceremonies, having been an unusually bright and intelligent member of that fraternity. The following detachment of members of Co. de Lion Commandery Knights Templar, of this city, went down on the early train to the funeral: N. S. Woodward, U. A. Bousier, E. Bull, S. B. Dow, Charles Toms, M. E. Woody, C. Zimmerman, J. M. Melton, H. W. Curtis, J. H. Shepherd, S. J. Todd, George W. Ross, John Cruze, Wm. Rule, Peter Kern, H. W. Hall, and Thomas D. Lewis. After taking breakfast at the Atlee House. They were joined by Sir Knight W. G. Horton, of that place, rigged themselves up in their attractive paraphernalia, formed into line and marched, headed by two Knoxville drummer boys, Wood Bowyer and Will Gilbert, and under command of Sir Knight N. S. Woodward, to the residence of Mr. Phillips. They were also attended by the resident lodge of Masons at Athens. They took charge of the remains and buried them in Cedar Grove Cemetery, after the usual beautiful, solemn and impressive ceremonies, both at the house and at the grave. Prelate Bousier and Sir Knight Woodward read the ceremonies in an excellent manner.

There was a large attendance both from the town and surrounding country, although the weather looked very threatening all the while, but still didn't rain. Thus was performed the last sad rites to the memory of a noble and exemplary young man, and a host of friends are left behind to join the bereaved relatives in tears of sympathy and words of admiration of the stainless character left behind.

Athens Dies. Our neighboring town of Athens is just now in the midst of the periodical "dull spell" which she always experiences during the summer vacation time, and this spell seems to be an unusually dull one.

Some life is furnished, however, by the Circuit Court, which was in session all last week. Judge Trowthitt presiding. On Friday the murder case of John Carter, colored, for the killing of Donas Magill, also colored, a few weeks since, was taken up, and the jury had to be kept over Sunday, the evidence not being all in. It was expected that the case would be concluded yesterday. The case of Parker, for the murder of young Royston, a few months since, was continued. The court was likely to continue all the week.

The friends of East Tennessee Wesleyan University are looking forward with bright anticipations to the opening of the session, Sept. 4th, and they expect a very prosperous year's work.

They have had plenty of rain at Athens and vicinity, and the crops and gardens are looking remarkably well.

Mr. Edgar Kelly, depot agent, has not entirely recovered from his protracted illness. He has gone to his home at Charleston to recuperate, and Mr. Lou. Ashmore, of Mossy Creek, still has charge of the depot.

Mr. Sam. P. Ivins, Jr., came home from Washington Sunday morning to take a few weeks furlough.

Mr. W. E. F. Milburn, an honored and efficient member of the Athens legal fraternity, a partner of Mr. W. H. Bryant, expects to leave in a few days for Kansas, where he will join his wife and they will take up their abode.

Our young friend, W. B. Turner, formerly dealer in books, stationery, etc., contemplates entering business as travelling salesman for T. H. Payne & Co., Chattanooga, soon.

Chafing Under Disappointment.

It is said that the reason why Butler sought the gubernatorial nomination was because he had not been fairly treated by the Republicans. The best cure for chafes of all kinds is Henry's Carbolic Salve. Try it and be convinced. Beware of counterfeits. Geo. W. Albers, Wholesale Agent, Knoxville, Tenn.

$50 Reward.

Escaped from Coal Creek Branch Prison, on August 14th, 1879, one convict—a negro man. He is about 5 feet and six inches high, weighs 150 pounds, quick spoken, heavy set, about 30 years old; he was sentenced from Bedford county, September 19th, 1877, for three years. I will give the above reward for him delivered here, or $25 for him at any jail in this State. JOHN CHUMBLEY.

Removed.

N. Cuquel, Merchant Tailor, has removed to the Kennedy Block, next door to the Billiard Hall, below Church street, where he will be glad to have his old customers, and as many new ones as possible, call and leave their measure for their Fall suits, having a good line of goods in stock. aug14-31-2.
